

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ONE	HISTORY
TWO	PROMOTERS
THREE	FORMATION
FOUR	INTERNAL AFFAIRS
FIVE	DIRECTORS
SIX	OFFICERS & AGENTS
SEVEN	SHAREHOLDERS
EIGHT	SHAREHOLDER SUITS
NINE	OFFICER & DIRECTOR LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES
TEN	SHAREHOLDER LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES
ELEVEN	CORPORATION'S LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES
TWELVE	MERGERS, SALES OF ALL ASSETS, & DISSOLUTION

CHAPTER ONE - HISTORY

- 1.01 English Corporate Law
- 1.02 United States & Washington Corporate Law
  - A. Early statutes
  - B. Constitutional prohibitions against incorporation by special act
  - C. Early corporation statutes were restrictive
  - D. The first modern statutes
  - E. Model Acts & Washington law

CHAPTER TWO - PROMOTERS

- 2.01 Generally
  - A. Term defined
  - B. Incorporators distinguished
  - C. Multiple promoters
  - D. Modern trend
- 2.02 Fiduciary Duty
  - A. Disclosure duty
  - B. Transactions between promoter & corporation
  - C. Secret profits
  - D. Multiple promoters
- 2.03 Breach of Duty
  - A. Claims against promoter are usually claims of corporation, not shareholders
  - B. Exception - shareholder claims against promoter
  - C. Remedy
- 2.04 Promoter Compensation
- 2.05 Liability of Promoter to Third Parties
  - A. General rules of agency apply.
  - B. Exception - third party agrees to look only to corporation
  - C. Promoter remains liable even if corporation assumes contract
  - D. Miscellaneous
- 2.06 Promoter Liability for Acts of Defective Corporations
- 2.07 Watered Stock
  - A. Rule today

- B. Constitutional prohibition against watered stock
- C. Miscellaneous

CHAPTER THREE - FORMATION

- 3.01 Generally
- 3.02 Incorporator
  - A. Qualifications
  - B. Duties
- 3.03 Organizational Meeting
- 3.04 De Facto Corporations & Corporations by Estoppel
  - A. Overview
  - B. De facto corporation defense
  - C. Corporation by estoppel
- 3.05 Articles of Incorporation
  - A. History
  - B. Corporate purpose
  - C. Contents: mandatory provisions
  - D. Contents: optional provisions
  - E. Filing requirements
  - F. Secretary of State information
- 3.06 Constitutional Limits on Statutory Changes
- 3.07 Amendment of Articles of Incorporation
  - A. Old rule - unanimous consent
  - B. New rule - majority vote & fairness
  - C. Current law - majority rule & fairness
  - D. Mechanics
- 3.08 Bylaws
  - A. Content: mandatory provisions
  - B. Content: recommended provisions
  - C. Emergency bylaws
  - D. Amendment
- 3.09 Par Value
- 3.10 Stock Certificates
  - A. Shareholder rights if certificates not delivered
  - B. Uncertificated shares
  - C. Form & content of certificate
  - D. Classes or series
  - E. Miscellaneous
- 3.11 Principal Office
- 3.12 Corporate Seal
- 3.13 Classes or Series of Shares
- 3.14 Name
  - A. Reserving name
  - B. Assumed business name
  - C. Name must be distinguishable
  - D. Unfair competition & unfair trade practices
  - E. Foreign corporations
  - F. Changing corporate name

CHAPTER FOUR - INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- 4.01 Registered Agents
- 4.02 Dividends & Other Distributions

- A. Definition
- B. Power to declare
- C. The right of shareholders to force declaration of distributions
- D. Shareholder rights after dividend declared
- E. Dividends on preferred shares
- F. When can board of directors declare distributions: early tests
- G. Solvency test
- H. Washington applies solvency test
- I. Delayed distributions
- J. Liability for illegal distributions
- 4.03 Share/Stock Dividends
  - A. Current rule
  - B. Old rule
  - C. Share splits
- 4.04 Corporate Records
- 4.05 Limited Liability & Indemnity of Officers & Directors
  - A. Limited liability
  - B. Permissive indemnity of directors & officers
  - C. Mandatory indemnity of directors & officers
- 4.06 Shareholder Right to Inspect Records
  - A. Statutory right to inspect
  - B. Proper purpose
  - C. Court ordered inspection
- 4.07 Shareholder Agreements in Close Corporations

CHAPTER FIVE - DIRECTORS

- 5.01 Generally
  - A. Collective power, not individual power
  - B. Directors are not corporate agents
- 5.02 Number & Qualification
  - A. Size of board of directors
  - B. Qualifications
- 5.03 Election & Term
  - A. Election
  - B. Term
  - C. Vacancies
  - D. Staggered terms
  - E. Cumulative voting
  - F. Voting by class
  - G. Oath of office
- 5.04 Meetings
  - A. Organizational meeting
  - B. Regular meetings
  - C. Special meetings & notice
  - D. Written consent in lieu of meeting
  - E. Telephone meetings
  - F. Location
  - G. One director; one vote
  - H. Director proxies
  - I. Attendance by attorneys

- 5.05 Quorum
  - A. Generally
  - B. Changes to quorum requirement
  - C. Effect of vacancies
  - D. Effect of conflicts of interest
- 5.06 Minutes of Meetings
- 5.07 Removal & Resignation
  - A. Removal, generally
  - B. Voting for removal
  - C. Directors removing directors
  - D. Removal by court order
  - E. Failure to qualify
  - F. Resignation
- 5.08 Duties
  - A. Power reserved to shareholders
  - B. Example of board's duties - dividends
  - C. Example - technical amendments to articles of incorporation
  - D. Example - amending bylaws
  - E. Example - dissolution
  - F. Power to delegate duties
- 5.09 Compensation
- 5.10 Ultra Vires Acts
  - A. Constitutional limitations
  - B. Statutory limitations
  - C. Acts contrary to articles & bylaws
  - D. Ultra vires - history
  - E. Ultra vires - today
- 5.11 Delegation of Duties - Agents & Committees
  - A. Delegation to agents
  - B. Delegation to board committees
- 5.12 Standard of Care
  - A. Standard at common law
  - B. Current statutory standard
  - C. Business judgement rule
  - D. Director liability may be limited
  - E. Liability for breach of standard of care
- 5.13 Business Judgment Rule
  - A. Generally
  - B. Example - Chicago Cubs
  - C. Two exceptions
  - D. Bad faith exception
  - E. Corrupt purpose exception
  - F. Business judgement rule - examples
  - G. Example - dividends
  - H. Example - consideration for stock
  - I. Example - derivative lawsuits
  - J. Burden of proof
- 5.14 Directors as Fiduciaries
  - A. Rule today
  - B. History
- 5.15 Fiduciary Duty to Individual Shareholders

- 5.16 Conflicts of Interest
  - A. Transactions between director & corporation: fiduciary duty
  - B. Early case law
  - C. Current statute
- 5.17 Directors as Creditors
  - A. General rule - director may become corporate creditor
  - B. Exception - transactions at/near insolvency
- 5.18 Usurping Corporate Opportunities
  - A. Transaction must be open
  - B. Corporation must knowingly reject opportunity
  - C. Forced sales
  - D. Non-Competition Agreements

CHAPTER SIX - OFFICERS & AGENTS

- 6.01 Generally
  - A. Officers & agents distinguished - historical view
  - B. Today, there is less distinction between officers & other agents
  - C. Agency principles apply to officers
  - D. Miscellaneous
- 6.02 Appointment
- 6.03 Term & Vacancies
  - A. Term
  - B. Removal
  - C. Resignation
- 6.04 Duties
- 6.05 Authority, Generally
- 6.06 Express Authority
- 6.07 Implied, Inherent, & Apparent Authority
  - A. Implied/inherent authority
  - B. Implied/inherent authority of general manager & other agents
  - C. Apparent authority
- 6.08 Ratification
  - A. Express ratification
  - B. Implied ratification
  - C. Ratification by acquiescence
  - D. Ratification by shareholders
  - E. Relation back
- 6.09 Absence of Authority
  - A. Generally
  - B. Discretionary authority
- 6.10 Standard of Care
- 6.11 Officers as Fiduciaries
- 6.12 Compensation
  - A. Early view
  - B. Modern view
  - C. Compensation if officer breaches fiduciary duty

CHAPTER SEVEN - SHAREHOLDERS

7.01 Generally

- A. Shareholders are distinct from corporation
- B. Directors, not shareholders, manage corporation
- C. Shareholders not agents of corporation
- D. Shareholders' role may be expanded under RCW 23B.07.320

7.02 Subscriptions & Other Contracts to Purchase Shares

- A. Definitions
- B. Subscriptions are contracts
- C. Subscriber's rights & liabilities once subscription accepted
- D. Qualifications to acquire shares
- E. Miscellaneous

7.03 Limited Liability

7.04 Meetings

- A. Annual meetings
- B. Special meetings
- C. Court-ordered meetings
- D. Action without a meeting
- E. Bylaws should contain rules for meetings
- F. Notice
- G. Telephone meetings
- H. Record date
- I. Shareholder list
- J. Voting
- K. Quorum
- L. Minutes
- M. Attendance by attorneys
- N. Rules governing meeting conduct

7.05 Proxies

7.06 Dividends & Other Distributions

7.07 Preemptive Rights

- A. Generally
- B. How long open?
- C. Securities laws apply
- D. Exceptions to preemptive rights
- E. Court protection
- F. Related issue

7.08 Voting Trusts

- A. Defined
- B. Old rule - disfavored
- C. Modern view - permitted
- D. Current law

7.09 Shareholder's Duty to Corporation

7.10 Duty of Controlling Shareholders

- A. Generally
- B. Other states
- C. Exceptions

7.11 Duty of Shareholders in Close Corporation

- A. Close corporation defined
- B. Close corporations are like partnerships

- C. In close corporation, all shareholders may owe fiduciary duty
- D. Majority shareholder in close corporation owes fiduciary duty
- E. Business judgment rule
- 7.12 Duty of Non-Controlling Shareholders
  - A. General rule - no fiduciary duty
  - B. Exception - 50% shareholder
  - C. Exception - minority shareholder with veto power
- 7.13 Power of Court to Protect Minority Shareholders
  - A. Statutory authority - oppressive conduct
  - B. Statutory authority - deadlock
  - C. Courts are reluctant to intervene
  - D. Courts retain equitable powers
  - E. Miscellaneous

CHAPTER EIGHT - SHAREHOLDER SUITS

8.01 Shareholder Actions Against Corporation, Generally

8.02 Individual Claims

- A. General rule - shareholders may not sue individually to enforce rights of corporation or of all shareholders, as a group
- B. Individual contract claims against corporation
- C. Claims when third party owes direct duty to both corporation & shareholder
- D. Individual claims for declared dividends
- E. Inspection of corporate records
- F. Action seeking judicial dissolution
- G. Action to compel stock transfer

8.03 Special Case - Closely Held Corporations

8.04 Derivative Lawsuits

- A. Generally
- B. Equitable action; extraordinary remedy
- C. Who may bring suit: contemporaneous ownership of shares
- D. Who may bring suit: representative plaintiff
- E. Demand requirement
- F. Burden of proof
- G. Recovery belongs to corporation, not plaintiff-shareholder
- H. Settlement - court approval required
- I. Attorney fees
- J. Washington does not require plaintiff to post security
- K. Verification
- L. Defenses

8.05 Dissenters' Rights

- A. Steps required by statute
- B. Fair value
- C. Attorney fees

- D. Appraisal action - exclusive remedy?

CHAPTER NINE - OFFICER & DIRECTOR LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 9.01 Liability, Generally
  - A. Shareholders
  - B. Officers
  - C. Directors
- 9.02 Acts Before Incorporation
- 9.03 Defective Corporations
- 9.04 Contract Liability
  - A. Directors not usually liable on corporate contracts
  - B. Agent for undisclosed principal is personally liable
  - C. Agent for partially-disclosed principal is personally liable
  - D. Corporation also liable
  - E. Agent liable for unauthorized acts

  - F. Agent liable for acts on behalf of disclosed, but nonexistent, principal
  - G. Agents liable if they personally guarantee contracts
- 9.05 Tort Liability
  - A. Agent liable for own tortious act
  - B. Officers & directors not liable for tortious acts of others
  - C. Specific torts
  - D. Civil & criminal actions by state
- 9.06 Interference with Contract & Civil Conspiracy
  - A. Interference With Contract
  - B. Civil Conspiracy
- 9.07 Improper Distributions
- 9.08 Officer & Director Liability to Creditors
- 9.09 False Prospectuses & Annual Reports
- 9.10 Statutory Liability

CHAPTER TEN - SHAREHOLDER LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 10.01 Shareholder Liability, Generally
  - A. Successor corporation & agency distinguished
  - B. Miscellaneous
- 10.02 Theory of Corporate Disregard
  - A. Extraordinary remedy
  - B. Question of fact
  - C. Early cases
  - D. Washington test today
  - E. Similar tests
  - F. Reverse piercing
- 10.03 Intentionally Improper Conduct
- 10.04 Milking
- 10.05 Commingling & Confusion

- 10.06 Violations of Statute
  - A. Generally
  - B. Licensing cases
- 10.07 Corporate Formalities
- 10.08 Inadequate Capitalization
  - A. Generally
  - B. Funds considered part of capitalization
  - C. When measured?
  - D. How much is enough?
  - E. Miscellaneous
- 10.09 Proximate Cause
  - A. Generally
  - B. Recovery may be limited to sum milked
- 10.10 Control
  - A. Early development
  - B. Control is not enough
  - C. Degree of control
  - D. Active & latent control distinguished
  - E. Who has actual control?
- 10.11 Unpaid Subscriptions
  - A. Generally
  - B. Failure to issue shares
  - C. Consideration permitted
  - D. Calls & assessments
  - E. Actions by corporation
  - F. Actions by creditors
- 10.12 Distributions Upon Dissolution
  - A. Generally
  - B. Procedures for cutting off corporate debts after dissolution

CHAPTER ELEVEN - CORPORATION'S LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- 11.01 Liability of Corporation for Acts of Promoter
- 11.02 Contract Liability
  - A. Corporations may enter into contracts
  - B. Ultra vires contracts
- 11.03 Tort Liability, Generally
  - A. Master/servant & principal/agent distinguished
  - B. Corporate liability for act of employee
  - C. Corporate liability for act of non-employee agent
  - D. Act of promoters
- 11.04 Intentional Acts of Agents
- 11.05 Liability after Acquisition of Assets
  - A. General rule - purchasing corporation not liable for selling corporation's debts
  - B. Five exceptions
  - C. Express agreement exception
  - D. De facto merger exception
  - E. Continuation exception
  - F. Fraud exception

- G. Product line exception
  - H. Rights of creditors if exception applies
  - I. Related issues - fraudulent conveyance & theory of corporate disregard
- 11.06 Liability after Mergers
- 11.07 Criminal Responsibility

CHAPTER TWELVE - MERGERS, SALES OF ALL ASSETS, & DISSOLUTION

- 12.01 Sale of Assets
- 12.02 Merger & Share Exchange
  - A. Procedures
  - B. Exception - merger of subsidiary into parent & of greatly unequal corporations
  - C. Effect of merger
  - D. Consolidations
  - E. Antitakeover Act
- 12.03 Dissolution, Generally
- 12.04 Voluntary Dissolution
  - A. Procedures
  - B. Effect of dissolution on conducting business
  - C. Creditors have first claim to assets upon dissolution
  - D. Cutting off claims against corporation
  - E. Distributions to shareholders
- 12.05 Administrative Dissolution
  - A. Grounds - administrative dissolution
  - B. Reinstatement
- 12.06 Judicial Dissolution
  - A. Shareholder initiated dissolutions
  - B. Court's power to dissolve is discretionary
  - C. Court's equitable power to regulate corporate affairs
- 12.07 Insolvent Corporations; Rights of Creditors; Trust Fund Theory
  - A. Duty of directors
  - B. Rights of creditors
  - C. Trust fund theory
  - D. Washington's statute on preferences

WASHINGTON BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT SECTIONS CITED

INDEX